

*Each food in this kitchen has a story.
Press the button to listen, and find the foods in the kitchen.*

Mission farm workers, 1770.
Junipero Serra

Sardine harvest, 1770.
Junipero Serra

Ohlone specialty, 1772.
Father Crespi

Food culture clash leads to murder, 1777.
Father Palou

Cattle crush crops and wild plants, 1780s.
Father Noboa y Peña

How the Ohlone stalk game.
Comte Galaud de La Pérouse

Mission food rations, 1789.
Comte Galaud de La Pérouse

Luis Peralta! Mobilize the workers! 1807.
Governor Arrillaga

How Peralta should manage the settlers' crops, 1809.
José María Estudillo

Winning a cooking contest in 1818.
Eulalia Perez

Discovering the landscape in 1819.
Domingo and Antonio Peralta

At a Yokut's funeral, 1819.
José María Estudillo

Food supplies during Mexico's independence struggle 1819.
José María Amador

Diet of the poor, 1819.
José María Amador

Chumash elder tells about a sweet treat, 1825.
Fernando Librado

Game of catch between priest and Native youth, 1826.
Captain Beechey

Californio picnics, 1834.
Carlos Hajar

Winemaking, 1834.
Carlos Hajar

Californio cuisine, 1830s-40s.
William Heath Davis

Bears invade Encarnación Peralta's watermelon patch, 1838.
William Heath Davis

Rancher's typical breakfast, 1830s-40s.
William Heath Davis

Californio cookouts, 1830s-40s

Peraltas farming, 1830s-40s
William Heath Davis

Mealtime courtesies, 1841.
John Bidwell

Seriously in love with María de Jesús Estudillo, 1843.
William Heath Davis

Feast in a Spanish dance hall, 1852.
Conmy

Peralta rancho foods and medicines, Native and californio, 1860s.
María de los Angeles Colós

Luis Peralta's daughters, 1870s, "the joy of the food conservationists."
Esiquia Alva in 1915

Bygone food and servants of the mission and rancho.
Mariano and Francisca Vallejo, 1880s

Inez Peralta's gardens, 1890s, her niece's 20th-century memories.
Manuelita Conger

Delicious treasures remembered.
Jacqueline Higuera MacMahan, 2003

Historical voices from Oakland Public Theater, based in Fruitvale.