MEET WHERE HISTORY, CULTURE, AND COMMUNITY MEET!

Explore the birthplace of Oakland and make The Center for History and community at Peralta Hacienda Historical Park the venue for your next event. The facility hosts workshops, classes, youth programs, parties, meetings, and receptions.

Make memories surrounded by community gardens and have Antonio Peralta's 1870 Victorian historical house and museum on the background. Visitors can walk around the six-acre site and enjoy the outdoor exhibits and shaded paths around Peralta creek.

This facility is the community hub of the historical site and is conveniently located just minutes from the I-580 and I-880 freeways and is walking distance from the Fruitvale Bart station.

THE IDEAL MEETING PLACE

The community center can accommodate up to 46 people indoors. Two sliding doors open on opposite sides of the building to increase seating capacity. The outdoors grass area behind the center is also available for seating and it can accommodate up to 100 people.

SPECIAL FEATURES:

- On-Site parking.
- Two restrooms are available for all rentals.
- The decorative sliding gate makes it possible to create privacy when the sliding doors are open.
- Authentic Mexican and Salvadorian catering restaurants located within minutes of the site.
- Tour of the Peralta House Museum included upon request (4-hour rental minimum). A local and state landmark listed on the National Register of Historic Places, this farmhouse represents Spanish-speaking California on the cusp of a new era after the Gold Rush and annexation of California by the United States. Externally, the house is restored and maintained to its original appearance, and inside it houses permanent and temporary exhibits.

Why meet at the Center for History & Community?

Every facility rental at Peralta Hacienda Historical Park benefits Fruitvale community members. 50% of the profits help fund youth programs like ACE summer camp and Welcome to Wildlife weekend activities that are offered at no cost to low-income families. The other 50% supports local jobs; caring community members are hired to help on the day of your event!

About Peralta Hacienda Historical Park

This City of Oakland Park is a great place to play and to learn. Here you can see footprints of two original adobe structures built in 1820 and 1840 as well as a reconstruction and outline of the hacienda wall dating from the Spanish and Mexican eras.

Enjoy outdoor historical exhibits, a native plants garden, and historically themed play structures. The park is open all day, year round for community recreation.

We invite you to have your next event at Peralta Hacienda Historical Park.
Be part of a vibrant and diverse community!
